Robert Molander

Robert Molander (born 1965) is a dual citizen of the United States and Sweden and lives primarily in the United States. Robert Molander holds an MBA from Washington University and two Bachelor's Degrees from Miami University in Economics and International Studies. Additionally, Robert Molander has 25 years of experience working in life science organizations with the commercialization of pharmaceuticals in the United States and has also served as an Executive Council Member at Harvard Medical School. A selection of the organizations that Robert Molander has worked for include Novartis, Pfizer and Trialbee. Robert Molander is, among other things, board member of Infant Bacterial Therapeutics AB (publ), listed on Nasdaq Stockholm, Small Cap. Robert Molander holds no shares in Xspray and is deemed independent in relation to both Xspray and its management, as well as in relation to Xspray's major shareholders.

The nomination committee's proposal on principles for the appointment of the nomination committee

The nomination committee proposes that the annual general meeting resolves on principles for appointing the nomination committee in accordance with Appendix 1. The principles for appointing the nomination committee are unchanged, the nomination committee shall comprise of the four largest shareholders of the company in terms of votes, and that the nomination committee's composition shall be based on Euroclear Sweden AB's share register as of 31 August.

The work of the nomination committee and motivated opinion

The nomination committee has had five documented meetings ahead of the annual general meeting 2022 and has, in addition thereto, on several occasions had informal contacts. Particular attention has been given to the composition of the board and how the board of directors operates as a group, and the nomination committee has also discussed the evaluation of the board of director's work. The nomination committee has also evaluated the level of remuneration to the board of directors. The increased remuneration has been proposed in light of that the nomination committee considers that the scope of the board of directors' work justifies an increased remuneration.

The nomination committee has, as basis for its work, executed an evaluation of the board of directors and held interviews with all members of the board of directors regarding the board and its work. The size of the board as well as its composition with regard to, inter alia, experience of the industry and qualifications have also been discussed.

The nomination committee has, in its work ahead of the annual general meeting, had an objective to ensure that the board, as a group, has the necessary competence and experience with regard to Xspray's operations and developing stage and to be able to continue to lead the Company in a successful manner. The nomination committee has, in particular, considered the need for diversity and variety in terms of competence, experience and background, in consideration of, inter alia, the Company's strategic development, governance and control. The nomination committee has also discussed perspectives of diversity, taking the view that such perspectives are material with regard to the composition of the board and that a gender balance shall be strived for. The nomination committee notes that the board, in the event the nomination committee's proposal is adopted by the annual general meeting, will consist of one woman and six men.

As regards the composition of the board of directors, what is set forth in section 4.1 of the Swedish Corporate Governance Code (Sw. Svensk kod för bolagsstyrning) (the "Code") has been applied as a diversity policy.

The nomination committee is of the opinion that the proposed board of directors consists of a wide and diversified group of qualified individuals who are motivated and who fit for the work required by a board of Xspray. The nomination committee is also of the opinion that the members of the board directors complement each other in terms of competence and experience.

The nomination committee complies with the Code. When assessing the independence of the proposed board members, the nomination committee has found that all proposed board members, except Anders Bladh, are independent. Anders Bladh is deemed independent in relation to Xspray and its management but is deemed dependent in relation to Xspray's major shareholders. The nomination committee's proposed composition of the board of the Company thus fulfils the requirements regarding independence set forth in the Code.

The nomination committee's proposal on principles for the appointment of the nomination committee

The chairman of the board of directors shall contact the four largest shareholders or group of shareholders in the Company in terms of votes, according to Euroclear Sweden AB's share register on 31 August. Each such shareholder shall be offered the opportunity to appoint a member who shall, together with the chairman of the board of directors, form the nomination committee. If any of these shareholders renounce from its right to appoint a representative, the right to appoint such representative shall pass to the largest shareholder in turn in terms of votes which is not already entitled to be represented on the nomination committee. The procedure shall continue until the nomination committee consists of four members, excluding the chairman of the board of directors, if this can be achieved after contacts with the ten largest shareholders and shareholders with a shareholding of three percent or more, as applicable, after which the thereby appointed members shall form the committee. The chairman of the nomination committee shall be the member who represents the largest shareholder in terms of votes, unless the members agree otherwise. The chairman of the board of directors may not be chairman of the nomination committee.

The chairman of the board of directors shall convene the nomination committee to its first meeting and shall, as a part of the nomination committee's work, report to the nomination committee such circumstances regarding the work of the board of directors and the need for special competences etc. that may be of importance for the work of the nomination committee. The composition of the nomination committee shall be announced as soon as the nomination committee has been formed and, in all events, no later than six months before the next annual general meeting. The members of the nomination committee are appointed for a term starting upon announcement of the composition of the nomination committee and running until a new nomination committee has been appointed.

In the event that the ownership structure of the company is changed after 31 August but before announcement of the nomination committee's complete proposals, and if a shareholder that after this change has become one of the four largest shareholders in the company in terms of votes makes a request to the chairman of the nomination committee to be part of the nomination committee, this shareholder shall have the right to appoint an additional member of the nomination committee. The nomination committee may further resolve that a member who has become significantly smaller than the fourth largest shareholder in the company in terms of votes shall resign from the nomination committee, if deemed appropriate.

If a member of the nomination committee resigns during the term of office or otherwise is unable to continue as member, the nomination committee shall request the shareholder that had appointed that member to, within reasonable time, appoint a new member. If the shareholder renounces its right to appoint a member, the right to appoint such new member shall pass on to the largest shareholder in turn in terms of votes which is not already represented on, or has renounced its right to appoint a member to the nomination committee. Changes to the composition of the nomination committee shall be announced as soon as they occur.

The nomination committee shall prepare proposals in respect of the following issues for the next annual general meeting to resolve upon:

- chairman of the annual general meeting,
- members of the board of directors,
- chairman of the board of directors,
- remuneration to the board of directors, distributed between the chairman of the board of directors and the other members of the board of directors,

- remuneration to the members of the remuneration committee and the audit committee, (if applicable),
- election of auditor,
- remuneration to the auditor, and
- in so far as it seems appropriate, changes to the instruction in force for the nomination committee.

Remuneration shall not be paid to the members of the nomination committee. However, the Company shall reimburse any costs that may arise in connection with the nomination committee's work, for example costs related to external consultants, which are deemed necessary by the nomination committee in order for the nomination committee to be able to fulfil its assignment.

These instructions shall remain in force until the general meeting resolves otherwise.
